

12TH BC PALEONTOLOGICAL SYMPOSIUM 2018

AUGUST 17-20, COURTENAY BC, FLORENCE FILBERG CENTRE

Welcome to the 12th British Columbia Paleontological Symposium, to be held at the Florence Filberg Centre, August 18th and 19th, 2018. The British Columbia Paleontological Alliance meets every two 2 years to hold symposia, to bring together many branches of paleontology: vertebrate, invertebrate, paleobotany, micropaleontology, paleoecology and paleoclimatology.

WE EXTEND A WARM INVITATION TO ALL TO PARTICIPATE

- The registration, welcome reception, posters and art show will be held Aug 17th at the Courtenay and District Museum and Paleontological Centre (207- 4th Street).
- The BC Paleontological Symposium presentations will be held at the Filberg Centre August 18th and 19th (411 Anderton Ave)
- There will be 15 formal presentations on the speakers list.
- Keynote speaker is Richard Hebda, Curator of Botany and Earth History, (Emeritus), Royal BC Museum.
- The Paleo-banquet will be held at the Florence Filberg Centre, August 18th, 6:00-9:00pm. (411 Anderton Ave)
- Special guest is Ray Troll, author, paleontological artist, scientific collaborator and musician will speak at the banquet.
- Field trips will be August 17th and 19th in the afternoon, and August 20th, all day.
- Fossil Prep. Workshop August 19th in the afternoon.
Jay Hawley and Dan Bowen
- Registration on line at Courtenay Museum: www.courtenaymuseum.ca

For more information email Dan Bowen • danbowen@shaw.ca
Rick Ross • rlmr@shaw.ca or Pat Trask • ptrask@courtenaymuseum.ca

Dan Bowen, Chair, Symposium Committee
President, VIPS (cell 1-250-897-5026)
www.vips-fossils.ca